Income- means the combined total adjusted gross income of the parent(s) with primary responsibility for the child, declared in the joint and/or individual annual

- The sliding fee scale for parent co-payments is based upon the Federal Poverty Guidelines (FPG) taking in to consideration the family size and income.
- Parents with an income equal to or less than fifty percent (50%) of the FPG shall not pay any co-payment.
- The parent co-payment requirements in this chapter shall apply solely to the first two children in the family.
- The co-payment for the second child shall be seventy-five percent (75%) of the amount of the co-pay for the first child.
- Parents are responsible for paying co-payments directly to the afterschool coordinator at your respective school.
